

Governor of the State of North Carolina has issued a proclamation duly attested by the Secretary of the State of North Carolina to the effect that there has been a termination of such Federal aid. In the event that this Act should be ipso facto repealed as herein provided, the State funds on hand shall be converted into the general fund of the State for such use as may be authorized by the Director of the Budget, and the county funds accumulated by the provisions of this Act in the respective counties of the State shall be converted into the general fund of such counties for such use as may be authorized by the county commissioners.

Proclamation by Governor.

Disposition of accumulated funds in event of discontinuance.

SEC. 16. The last sentence of section five, Chapter fifty-three, Acts of one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, the act establishing the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind, reading as follows: "The commission may also, whenever it thinks proper, aid individual blind persons or groups of blind persons to become self-supporting by furnishing material or machinery to them, and may also assist them in the sale and distribution of their products; but this shall not be deemed to authorize the making of gifts by the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind," is hereby repealed. The following shall be substituted in lieu thereof as an amendment to that section: "The commission may also, whenever it thinks proper, aid individual blind persons or groups of blind persons to become self-supporting by furnishing material or equipment to them, and may also assist them in the sale and distribution of their products. Any portion of the funds appropriated to the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind under the provisions of this Act providing for the rehabilitation of the blind and the prevention of blindness may, when the North Carolina State Commission for the Blind deems wise, be given in direct money payments to the needy blind in accordance with the provisions of this amending Act, and whenever possible such funds may be matched by funds provided by the Federal Social Security Act."

Ch. 53, Public Laws 1935, further amended.

Rehabilitation of the blind.

Payments authorized in discretion of State Commission.

SEC. 17. This Act shall be in effect from and after the ratification, and all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Conflicting laws repealed.

Ratified this the 13th day of March, A.D. 1937.
